

Jill Latschislaw is the Senior Manager, Workforce Development and Community Initiatives for the Manitoba Institute of Trades and Technology. In her role, she is responsible for the growth of Workforce Development and Community Initiatives including business development, program planning, contract training, consulting services, partnership initiation and management. She is engaged in industry-driven program development and initiatives, as well as business, industry and community engagement. Additionally, Jill oversees MITT's Youthbuild program, which is the indigenous carpentry program located at the Social Enterprise Centre, 765 Main Street. Jill is particularly interested in assisting First Nation communities in accessing training in programs such as Residential Framing, Business Administrative Assistant, and tourism courses, as well as the issuing of micro-credentials through the recognition of skills mastery on the job.

Jill is a U of M graduate with a Diploma in Human Resource Management, and is a Level 1 DACUM Facilitator.

While Jill calls Winnipeg home, she has roots in Northern Manitoba. She was born in Flin Flon and goes to the cabin fishing at Denare Beach every summer.
